Dear Tom,

Thank you very much for your letter. I am glad that you enjoyed the holiday with us. We also enjoyed having you and your sister here. We hope that you will both be able to come again next year. Perhaps you'll be able to stay longer next time. A week is not really long enough, is it? If your school has five weeks' holiday next year, perhaps you will be able to stay with us for two or three weeks.

We have been back at school for three weeks. I expect that you are both working very hard because you are in Grade Six now. John and Ann won't be in Grade Six until next year. They went on a picnic yesterday but I didn't go with them, because I hurt my foot and I couldn't walk very well. They went to an island and enjoyed themselves there.

John, Ann and I send our best wishes to you. We hope to see you soon. Yours,

Michael

Answer the questions.

Hi, Jason,

Great to hear from you! I'd really like to be your pen pal. I'm the same age as you are and I'm in Grade 6 at a junior high school. I live with my mum and my older sister. My mum works very hard. She's a nurse. My sister goes to work, too, so I look after myself most of the time.

I like most sports, but my favourite sport is American football. I watch my team play every Sunday. They always win the games. They are the best in the league (联盟).

My best friend is my dog. His name is Abe, after Abraham Lincoln. Some people say it's a silly name for a dog but I like it. And so does he! I got him from the City Dog Pound (收容所). When he saw me, he wagged (摇摆) his tail, and I knew we were going to be friends. He goes everywhere with me. When my mum is on the night shift (轮班) in the hospital, Abe sleeps on my bed!

Write to me soon. Tell me something about Paris.

Yours,

Tommy

Answer the questions.

Early on the morning of November 4th, 2007, when it was still dark, Daryl Howe began one of the world's great running races—the New York City Marathon. And he crossed the finish line more than five hours later.

What's so impressive (给人印象深刻的) about that? The fastest man in the 2007 marathon ran the 42-kilometre course in just two hours and nine minutes. However, Daryl's run was just as impressive because he had a disease called Cerebral Palsy (大脑性麻痹). He was born with the disease. It affects all of his limbs (四肢) and also makes it difficult for him to speak clearly. When he was a child, doctors did not expect him to be able to walk.

But Daryl is a very determined (\mathfrak{L} \mathfrak{E} \mathfrak{h}) young man. He not only learned to walk but with the help of his family and friends, he also learned to run. The New York City Marathon was Daryl's tenth marathon. He told a television reporter, "Nothing is impossible unless you yourself make it impossible."

1. When did the 2007 New York City Marathon take place?

2. How long did it take the fastest man to finish the marathon?

3. Why was Daryl's run impressive?

- 4. How many marathons had Daryl run in before the New York City Marathon?
- 5. What do you think of Daryl Howe? What can we learn from him?

Water is the most important of all the things we eat and drink. Not many people understand this but it's quite $1_$. The human body can go without food for a long time. We've got many examples for this. Two or three days without water can usually make people $2_$.

Many people don't know how __3__ water the human body needs to work well, and many people, especially (尤其) young people, do not drink enough water, even in __4__ weather. Our body is mostly water, about 65% to 75%. That is to say, about two thirds of our body is water. When we do sports, some of the water will get away from our body. __5__ we don't drink some water, we won't have enough water. And if we don't have enough water, we'll feel tired and many of us will get ill. So now you know how important water is to us.

Answer the questions.

Kieron Williamson, a 12-year-old boy, from Britain, has been famous all over the world, and his paintings have made him a millionaire (百万富翁).

The little artist only started painting during a family trip in 2008—before then he just coloured in dinosaurs (恐龙) as his parents told him to do.

Kieron loves drawing pictures of scenery (风景) and the sea. He is called Mini Monet or Small Picasso. Many people think Kieron is a lone boy. However, he is just an ordinary (普通的) young boy with a gift in drawing. He draws almost every day. When he's free, he plays football with other boys. And the little boy also loves riding a bike along the country road.

Kieron's mother has written a book, Kieron Williamson Coming to Light—The Remarkable Story of a Child's Gift to Painting, about his stories in the art world and his works. Now Kieron is writing a novel about a story in 1818.

1. How old is Kieron Williamson?

2. What kind of pictures does Kieron love drawing?

3. How often does Kieron draw?

4. What are Kieron's hobbies?

5. What is Kieron doing now?
